

SANDRIDGE ENERGY, INC.
CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of SandRidge Energy, Inc. (the “Company”) has established the Compensation Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) with authority, responsibility and specific duties as described in this Compensation Committee Charter.

I. Purposes

The purposes of the Committee are to:

- A. Review, evaluate and approve the agreements, plans, policies and programs of the Company to compensate the Company’s corporate officers and directors;
- B. Oversee the Company’s plans, policies and programs to compensate the Company’s employees;
- C. Review and discuss with the Company’s management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis (“CD&A”) to be included in the Company’s proxy statement for its annual meeting of stockholders (“Proxy Statement”) and to determine whether to recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Proxy Statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations;
- D. Produce the Compensation Committee Report for inclusion in the Company’s Proxy Statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations;
- E. Otherwise discharge the Board’s responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s corporate officers and directors; and
- F. Perform such other functions as the Board may assign to the Committee from time to time.

II. Membership

The Committee shall consist of not less than two members of the Board. Within twelve (12) months of the Company’s listing on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) each member of the Committee shall be “independent” as defined by the listing requirements of the NYSE. Until such time, the membership of the Committee will be in compliance with the listing requirements of the NYSE. In addition, at least two members of the Committee shall be “Non-Employee Directors” for the purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as in effect from time to time (“Rule 16b-3”), and “outside directors” for the purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, as in effect from time to time (“Section 162(m)"). Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements, no action of the Committee shall be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

The members of the Committee and its Chairman shall be selected annually by the Board, based on the recommendation of the Nominating & Governance Committee, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee shall be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, a majority vote of the Board. If a Chairman is not designated by the Board or present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chairman by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee shall have authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions.

A. Authority

The Committee shall have the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it shall deem appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.
2. Retain and determine funding for independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors, including the sole authority to retain, approve the fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any compensation consultant to be used in the evaluation of director, Chief Executive Officer or officer compensation, as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular outside legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee; and (b) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
3. Delegate to its Chairman, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances. However, subcommittees shall not have the authority to engage independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors unless expressly granted such authority by the Committee. Each subcommittee shall keep minutes and report them to the Committee.

B. Responsibilities

Executive Compensation

1. The Committee shall exercise oversight of all matters of executive compensation policy.
2. At least yearly, the Committee shall:
 - Review, modify (if necessary) and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Company's other executive officers, as well as other members of the Company's senior management;
 - Review, modify (if necessary) and approve the Company's executive compensation program in light of the Company's goals and objectives relative to executive compensation;
 - Evaluate the performance of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, the Company's other executive officers and other members of the Company's senior management in light of those goals and objectives; and
 - Set the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and, based on the aforesaid evaluation and in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, the compensation for the Company's other executive officers as well as for the other members of the Company's senior management, including the annual base salary levels, annual cash incentive awards, long-term incentive awards, employment agreements, severance arrangements, change-in-control agreements; and any special or supplemental benefits. In determining the long-term incentive component (if any) of such compensation, the Committee should consider the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar awards to officers at comparable companies and the awards given to the Chief Executive Officer, other executive officers, as well as other members of the Company's senior management historically.
3. The Committee shall review and discuss with the Company's management the CD&A to be included in the Company's Proxy Statement and, based on that review, determine whether to recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Proxy Statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
4. Periodically, the Committee shall prepare a Compensation Committee Report and publish the report in the Company's Proxy Statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

Incentive and Equity Compensation

5. Each year, the Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans that are subject to Board approval. In addition, the Committee may authorize the granting of long-term incentive awards to employees who are not executive officers or other members of the Company's senior management.
6. The Committee shall ensure that stockholders are given the opportunity to vote on equity-compensation plans, as required by law, applicable listing standards, the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws (as amended from time to time), the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Director Compensation

7. Each year, the Committee shall review director compensation and make a recommendation to the Board regarding the form and amount of director compensation. Directors who are employees of the Company shall not receive any additional compensation for service on the Board.

Other Powers and Responsibilities

8. The Committee shall review and approve, or review and recommend to the Board for its approval of, any transaction in equity securities of the Company, or derivatives of those equity securities, between the Company and any officer or director of the Company who is subject to the reporting and short-swing liability provisions of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
9. The Committee shall monitor the Company's compliance with the requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 relating to 401(k) plans and loans to directors and officers and with all other applicable laws affecting employee compensation and benefits.
10. The Committee shall receive and review periodic reports on the Company's compensation plans, policies and programs as they affect all employees.

IV. Procedures

- A. Meetings. The Committee shall meet at the call of its Chairman, two or more members of the Committee or the Chairman of the Board. The Committee shall meet as frequently as circumstances dictate. Meetings of the Committee may be in person, by conference call or by unanimous written consent, in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Meetings of the Committee shall be held at such time and place, and upon such notice, as its Chairman may from time to time determine. The Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it deems appropriate.

Meetings may, at the discretion of the Committee, include non-independent directors, members of the Company's management, independent advisors and consultants or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. Those in attendance may observe meetings of the Committee, but shall not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee, and in any event shall not be entitled to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, any director that is not a member of the Committee.

- B. Quorum and Approval. A majority of the Committee's members constitutes a quorum. The Committee shall act on the affirmative vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting.
- C. Rules. The Committee may determine additional rules and procedures, including designation of a Chair pro tempore in the absence of its Chairman and designation of a secretary of the Committee or any meeting thereof.
- D. Reports. The Committee shall maintain minutes of its meetings and make regular reports to the Board of its actions and any recommendations to the Board, directly or through its Chairman.
- E. Review of Charter. Periodically, the Committee shall review the need for changes in this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- F. Performance Review. Each year, the Committee shall review and evaluate its own performance and shall submit itself to the review and evaluation of the Board.
- G. Fees; Reimbursement of Expenses. Each member of the Committee shall be paid the fee set by the Board for his or her services as a member of, or Chairman of, the Committee. Subject to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and other policies, Committee members will be reimbursed by the Company for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with their duties as Committee members.

V. Posting Requirement

The Company shall post this Charter on the Company's website as required by applicable rules and regulations. In addition, the Company shall disclose in its Proxy Statement that a copy of this Charter is available on the Company's website.

While the Committee members have the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Charter, nothing contained in this Charter is intended to create, or should be construed as creating, any responsibility or liability of the Committee members, except to the extent otherwise provided under applicable federal or state law.
